Easton Regional Mock Trial Tournament – February 24-26, 2012

Lafayette College is once again hosting the Easton Regional Mock Trial Tournament on campus and they are looking for judges, attorneys and law school students to serve as a judge and/or jury for the tournament.

Many of you have helped with the project over the years and have enjoyed the process. Students from undergraduate colleges are given a case they need to prepare for trial from both the prosecution and from the defense sides. This year's case is a vehicular homicide case.

Please consider volunteering your time for a few hours.
